Tork® Xpress® Multifold Hand Towel / Slimline Advanced

To commemorate seven decades of operation in Kawerau, New Zealand, Tork is bringing to life our story and connection to the local area through limited edition packaging. Local Māori artist Sarah Hudson was commissioned to bring to life the area's rich heritage and connection to the land. The Korohū Mutunga Kore design adapts the Takarangi spiral form. It represents the seen and unseen during the transformation of geothermal energy into power. This design is featured on the Tork Xpress® Multifold Hand Towels - our most popular hand towels in the range due to their consistent high quality and value. To learn more about our geothermal story, visit Kawerau Geothermal Story
